

Dear Sir or Madam,

I object to anything that would deregulate broadband. The independent internet provider that I use offers personalized service that can not be obtained from the large phone companies. Please continue regulating broadband.

Thanks You,

Robert Kaplan